

Lunch Hour

by Jean Kerr

Thursday, May 27 - Wednesday, June 2

Directed by Sam Koogler & produced by Michael Lafferty

What happens when a best selling relationship author finds out his wife is having an affair with a wealthy, older man? He pretends to have an affair with his rival's kookie, younger wife... Or maybe not. Starring Sam Waterson and Gilda Radner on Broadway, a fresh, stylish comedy from the author of Please Don't Eat the Daisies.

Going to St. Ives

by Lee Blessing

Thursday, June 17 - Wednesday, June 23

Directed by Nancy Kiracofe

GOING TO ST. IVES is the story of two strong-willed women, one African and one American, brought together by that which is personal and divided by that which is political as both want to accomplish the greater good.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

by Andrew Lloyd Webber & Tim Rice

Thursday, July 8 - Wednesday, July 14

Directed by Bob Wright, musical direction by Don Roe, and produced by Linda Petzke, Kim Harris, and Jerry Pangburn.

With a crash of drums and a flash of light, take a rainbow ride through biblical Egypt with Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's irresistible retelling of the story of Joseph, his jealous brothers and one very loud garment! A colorful tale that spans musical styles from calypso to rock to disco to country, this worldwide phenomenon has been an audience favorite for more than thirty-five years! Featuring "Any Dream Will Do," "Close Every Door" and "Go, Go, Go Joseph!"

PRELUDE TO A KISS

by Craig Lucas

Thursday, July 29 - Wednesday, August 4

Directed by Diane Stewart

Boy meets girl. A whirlwind romance. A storybook wedding. A kiss for the bride that suddenly changes everything. Welcome to the quirky, poignant whimsy of Craig Lucas's modern fairy tale for adults, about the complications of modern romance and the enduring power of love. Some adult content.

Arsenic & Old Lace

by Joseph Kesselring

Thursday, August 19 - Wednesday, August 25

Directed by Ben Houseknecht

They say insanity runs in the Brewster family and they may be right. Just when Mortimer Brewster thinks marriage is the worst of his woes, a simple trip to his boyhood home changes that in an instant. Murder, mayhem, and laughs ensue in this classic tale of a family that can kill you with its kindness.
